

Why do farmers farm?

Drawing must be mailed in by March 1!

Please mail contest entries to:
North Dakota Farm Bureau
PO Box 2793
Bismarck, ND 58502

Drawing contest is open to 4 and 5 grade students.
A winner from each grade will be chosen and receive $50!
Please fill out contact information on back of sheet.

"I farm because it's family and tradition. I farm because its the opportunity for the next generation and involves technology and innovations and it's also a daily challenge. I've never turned down a challenge and neither has my family. Farming is our future and I believe in our future," Katie Heger, NDFB member.

"I farm because I couldn't imagine raising the next generation anywhere else. I farm because of the beliefs that we have and the freedoms that we've been given and we want to continue that on to the next generation," Val Wagner, NDFB member.

I farm because

NDFB Week March 5-11

Drawing contest for 4th and 5th Graders

You must be in 4th or 5th grade to participate in the drawing contest (we encourage color to be a part of the drawing). Students should submit a drawing that answers, "Why do farmers farm?" One winner will be chosen from each grade level. Winners will receive $50 and their drawing will be used for NDFB promotion. Please submit drawings to the NDFB Bismarck office by March 1. The winner will be announced during North Dakota Farm Bureau Week, March 5-11.

Please mail contest entries to:
North Dakota Farm Bureau
PO Box 2793
Bismarck, ND 58502

Name: _____

Grade: _____

Phone Number: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ Zip: _____

Call 701-224-0330 or email lisa@ndfb.org with questions about the contest.

Production agriculture is the largest sector of North Dakota's economy, making up to 25 percent of the economic base. NDFB advocates for agriculture because we are dedicated to improving opportunities for all North Dakotans.