

NDFB Becki Palmer Scholarship (For high school seniors)

Purpose: The Scholarship will recognize academic achievements as well as leadership skills of high school seniors. Becki Palmer was an employee of NDFB who played an integral role in teaching North Dakota youth, and helped bring agriculture education and safety to children across the state. Becki understood the importance of scholarship opportunities because of her involvement in the scholarship programs of NDFB and Dollars for Scholars. Becki died of cancer in 2006.

Amount: The scholarship is one thousand ($1000).

Criteria: The following criteria will be used in selecting recipient(s)

- Applicant's parent is a member of North Dakota Farm Bureau.
- Applicant is a high school senior, graduating in 2022.
- Applicant will be attending an accredited college or university in the fall of 2022.
- Applicant is a well-rounded individual who has achieved a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or better. The applicant should demonstrate quality involvement in a balance of extracurricular and service activities as well as leadership ability and potential.
- Applicant must submit application, high school transcript, and three (3) letters of recommendation to the email address listed in the application no later than March 15. Application forms are enclosed.
- Letters of recommendation must come from at least 2 different sources (i.e. educator, work/volunteer supervisor, community member, clergy member).
- Application must be completed in its entirety.
