

What a participant said about the seminar:

"I believe I got my money's worth in the first half day of training. Not only did we implement much of what we learned, but I also took advantage of additional advice from the staff. I wholeheartedly recommend this course to prospective candidates."

Karen Anderson,
Walsh County Commissioner

About the Facilitator:

Jay Ferris first joined the staff of Nebraska Farm Bureau in 1999. Since 2004 he has served the organization as Director of Grassroots Programs. In this capacity, Jay oversees political involvement and PAC activities through candidate surfacing and support efforts, as well as general government relations activities on behalf of the organization's 61,000 member-families. Mr. Ferris is recognized throughout the Midwest as an outstanding political consultant and has been actively involved in hundreds of local, state, and national political campaigns.

General Observations

Purpose - To help candidates for public office, whether veteran office holders or first-time participants, plan and execute successful political campaigns.

Target Group - The seminar is designed for candidates for public office, their spouses and their campaign managers. We also encourage individuals who may be interested in seeking elected public office at some future time.

About the Seminar - The Campaign Management Seminar was developed by the American Farm Bureau Federation with input from political consultants and staff of both political parties. Videos, overheads, a case study and a computer game assist in the presentation of the seminar. Participants have an opportunity to have meaningful, hands-on experience and to test techniques, tools and methods.

Limited Enrollment - To allow for individual attention, enrollment will be limited to 28 people.

Lodging - Make room reservations directly with the hotel of your choice. Please secure your room at least two weeks before the event. Nearby hotels include:

Candlewood Suites - 701-751-8900

Holiday Inn - 701-751-8240

Wingate by Wyndham - 701-751-2373
